

What is a speech–language pathologist?

We help people with difficulties from the neck up!

This includes communicating, eating, and thinking.

We work in schools, hospitals, private clinics, and living rooms—anywhere people may need our support!

Visit whatsSLP.com to learn more or find a speech–language pathologist near you.